

Brent Morgan

Director – Melbourne Office

Brent has worked in the business recovery and insolvency field since 1996, with a particular focus on business evaluations, corporate recoveries and formal corporate insolvency administrations.

Prior to co-founding the Rodgers Reidy Melbourne office, Brent was a director of the Rodgers Reidy predecessor firm. Previous to this, he spent two years working in insolvency in the United Kingdom for Tenon Recovery.

Career Highlights and Key Expertise

Brent has worked on a number of major insolvencies in the United Kingdom including International Sports Limited (ISL Television, Marketing and Productions) and Quantum TV.

Brent has a wealth of knowledge and experience in the following fields in particular:

- Property
- Building & Construction
- Manufacturing
- Transport
- Hospitality, Tourism & Leisure
- Retailing

Professional Qualifications

- Bachelor of Business
- Bachelor of Arts (Legal Studies)
- Advanced Insolvency Law & Practice, I & II
- Registered Liquidator
- Official Liquidator of the Supreme Court
- Official Liquidator of the Federal Court

Memberships & Associations

- Institute of Chartered Accountants of Australia
- Insolvency Practitioners Association of Australia

Personal Interests

Brent enjoys spending his time with his family - he's the father of two; a cheeky little girl and a little boy who he hopes will be the full forward for Collingwood in twenty years. His other interests include (when allowed) playing golf and going to the football to watch his beloved Magpies. Go Pies!

Contact

T: +61 3 9670 8700

F: +61 3 9670 0525

M: +61 412 343 299

E: bmorgan@roddersreidy.com