

Geoff Handberg

Director – Melbourne Office

Geoff has practiced exclusively in insolvency since 1989. He joined the Rodgers Reidy predecessor firm as a partner in September 1998. Prior to this, he spent ten years with a major national insolvency firm as a specialist in business evaluations, corporate recovery and formal corporate insolvency administrations. His expertise in the evaluation and assessment of businesses of every size has been honed across a broad range of industries.

Career Highlights and Key Expertise

Geoff has worked on insolvency projects of all kinds, sizes and complexity; from Pyramid Building Society and Budget Rent-a-Car, through to the winding up of family-owned small businesses.

Geoff has particular specialisation in the following industries:

- Hospitality, Tourism & Leisure
- Managed Investment Schemes
- Manufacturing
- Primary Production
- Wholesaling
- Retailing

Professional Qualifications

- Bachelor of Business (Accounting)
- ICAA Professional Year program
- Advanced Insolvency Law & Practice, I & II
- Registered Liquidator
- Official Liquidator of the Supreme Court
- Official Liquidator of the Federal Court

Memberships & Associations

- Institute of Chartered Accountants of Australia
- Insolvency Practitioners Association of Australia

Personal Interests

Geoff spends much of his spare time with his wife and two daughters. When not ferrying the girls to their Little Athletics, parties and concerts, he enjoys travelling, wining and dining, and watching the resurgence of the Carlton Football Club.

Contact

T: +61 3 9670 8700

F: +61 3 9642 0525

M: +61 417 524 109

E: ghandberg@rodgersreidy.com