

Geoff Reidy

Director – Sydney Office

Geoff began specialising in Turnaround and Insolvency accounting in 1990. In 1999, with a long list of successful results in both corporate and personal recovery to his name, coupled with an iron-clad reputation for ethics and transparency, he co-founded specialist insolvency accounting firm, Rodgers Reidy.

Career Highlights and Key Expertise

Whether it's a small personal insolvency or a large corporate work-out, Geoff works with passion and commitment to transform financial despair and disrepair into not just economic viability, but profitable enterprise growth. And in circumstances where this is not achievable, he applies his years of specialist knowledge and experience towards optimising the returns for all stakeholders, while ensuring maximum transparency so that all parties are kept informed throughout the entire insolvency process.

Geoff has particular experience in the following industries:

- Manufacturing
- Contract Cleaning
- Retailing
- Building & Construction
- Entertainment

Professional Qualifications

- Bachelor of Economics (Accounting) – Macquarie
- Chartered Accountant
- Official Liquidator
- Registered Liquidator
- Registered Trustee in Bankruptcy
- Diploma of Law (LPAB)
- Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants

Memberships & Associations

- Institute of Chartered Accountants of Australia
- Insolvency Practitioners Association of Australia

Personal Interests

Time well spent with his friends and family is Geoff's focus when away from the office. Playing and watching sports involving two teams of blokes and a circular or oval-shaped ball takes up any time left over.
