

Peter Rodgers

Consultant – Sydney Office

After accumulating more than thirty years as a specialist accountant in business recovery, bankruptcy and insolvency at some of Australia's largest firms (complemented with significant periods in general accountancy practice), Peter co-founded Rodgers Reidy with Geoff Reidy in early 1999.

Although now semi-retired, Peter maintains an advisory role to the firm, providing invaluable insights and directions to achieve equitable mediations, accurate valuations, and successful corporate restructuring and refinancing.

Career Highlights and Key Expertise

Advisor to Film and Television Australia in the industry's early, formative years. One of the original liquidators who formed the Panel of Court Appointed Liquidators.

Provisional Liquidator, and subsequently, Official Liquidator, of the Dainford Group of Companies (which even today still ranks as one of the biggest corporate failures in the Australian building industry).

Advisor to the Corporate Affairs Commission – the predecessor to the Australian Securities and Investment Commission.

Peter offers particular experience in the following industries and functions:

- Fashion Industry
- Film & Television Industry
- Personal Bankruptcy & Part X Arrangements
- Litigation Support and Expert Witness
- Receiverships

Professional Qualifications

- Registered Tax Agent
- Registered Auditor
- Registered Liquidator
- Official Liquidator
- Registered Trustee in Bankruptcy

Memberships & Associations

- Institute of Chartered Accountants of Australia
- Insolvency Practitioners Association of Australia

Personal Interests

The Sydney to Hobart on Boxing Day continues to claim Peter's attention at that time of year, regardless of the fact he subsequently always proclaims, "That was my last Hobart." Peter also retains strong ties to the Salvation Army, to which he contributes both financially and with his time.

Contact

T: +61 2 9262 1944

F: +61 2 9262 1933

E: prodgers@roddersreidy.com.au